

ASHLAND HILLS HOTEL & SUITES

It's not news to Oregonians that Ashland is a great stop for a romantic weekend. The small town is a charmer, and it has the added bonus of fulfilling the culture quotient with the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

Ashland Hills Hotel & Suites is a classic spot that has been extensively renovated and given a very mod feel. The retro furnishings and the epic lobby décor will put you in the mood for a Jetsons-like vacation.

The hotel has several packages that will serve your romantic needs. First, there's the Lunar Experience package, which features the traditional truffles-and-champagne treats but adds a bouquet of flowers and a meal voucher to LUNA Cafe + Mercantile. A Craftmanship Wine and Dine Package includes wine flights, charcuterie and cheese boards, and the LUNA meal voucher. There's also a package that features movie tickets, which might be just the thing to take your romance back to humble high school beginnings.

BEST NEARBY ROMANTIC DINNER

Ashland is one of those lucky small towns that overshoots its size with great restaurants. Larks Restaurant is an accessible favorite that is fancy but not so fancy you'll feel uncomfortable. Another great option is Alchemy, which goes all in on the fine dining—steak tartare, pommes frites, raviolo. (larksrestaurant.com, alchemyashland.com)
